How can he trust his instincts, trust her, when he knows that more than his mission could be compromised if he's wrong? Delaine has had her heart broken before. When all their secrets are revealed, she'll have to decide whether she's truly found her mate...or allowed herself to fall straight into enemy hands. In Egyptian Voyage, meet Chrysalyn Geyer, an overworked undercover agent desperately in need of rest who couldn't have been more miffed with her boss. What was she supposed to do on a mandatory three month vacation? Stuck on a private residence cruise ship, she tried to prepare herself for what was sure to be pure boredom. Then he appeared--Rahn Benson. What the hell was he doing on her ship? And while her African lion spirit guide was happy to see the man, Chrys couldn't see past knocking him senseless for breaking her heart. Rahn is determined to do anything to win Chrys back. But first he must protect her from the unseen threat quietly stalking her from port to port. Rahn might be damned good at job, but can he "work" his way past Chrys' stubbornness to occupy a place in her heart, rather than just her bed? From Portugal to Egypt, indulge in your most intimate longings on the high seas.
