Destroyed by a fire, plunged into smoke; the place that the orphans called home seemed irretrievable along with the smog filled memories it had left behind. But St. Aloysius is being built again, and the orphans are about to find out that no one can run from the past - no matter how much time has passed. Each will be forced to relive what it meant to them: mysteries will be unravelled, secrets revealed and truth ignited. A powerful reunion is about to occur, one not to everyone's liking.
