Vows of Deception: Something old, new, borrowed, & BLUE... Mrs. K. K. Harris

Danielle and Lamont Graves have a wonderful marriage to outsiders. He is very attentive, loving, and affectionate towards his wife of five years. Having met their senior year of college the two have been through it all together. While Danielle started her career as a psycho-therapist directly after graduating, Lamont had to start from the bottom working his way to the top. In the beginning things were tight, finances were few but with the love they had for one another, it made it all worth it. An anonymous message leads Danielle on a wild goose chase resulting in her finding out about her dear husband's constant infidelity. Instead of denying his wrong-doings, Lamont admitted he has cheated for two years out of the five they've been married. In his mind the logical excuse was he was bored and frankly wasn't attracted to his wife anymore. With the weight of the world and a failed marriage, Danielle has a drunken night drowning her sorrows. Heartbroken, devastated, lacking self-esteem, and loaded with negative debt Danielle has to pick up the pieces of her crumbled life. Assuming things couldn't possibly get any worse, she was dealt the deadliest blow of them all. To stay above water with the countless credit card bills, foreclosed home, and repossessed cars holding her credit hostage Danielle is forced to take on a part-time job. Chance meetings, a knight without the armor, and apparent foes within her circle will make themselves visible. Will Danielle get over huge betrayals or will she allow bitterness to consume her rational mind? Can she allow love to live within her ever again?
