Can Detective Milliner save a very special little boy from the evil lurking in the lake?

“The depth and complexity of his characters brings you into their heads yet leaves you curious and wanting more.” GinMills06

“A great supernatural thriller which will intrigue and surprise you.” Ann Abrams

“Mysterious, beautiful, and wonderfully atmospheric, great for Stephen King/Dean Koontz fans.” Sarah Munning

The waters are rising and time is running out

Detective Tom Milliner is fighting supernatural forces to save the life of a unique little boy. He needs a blood transfusion and only one person matches. But first Milliner must solve the mystery at the Kingston house, where Liz Goldfine may have committed a heinous crime, and the dark depths of the lake harbor an evil entity. Are the young men, burning with their occult fire, there to help or hinder Milliner?

What lurks deep in the lake and how can Tom Milliner stop it?

Perfect for fans of Stephen King, Dean Koontz, Noel Hynd, Maggie Stiefvater, and Jim Butcher novels.

This deluxe edition of “Highwater” includes the short story “Sugaring Season” a spine-tingling tale of unexplored love.
