My Life Through Poetry (Poetry of my life Book 1) mary holland

I dedicate this book to my sister Dorothy who I admired, and loved as she fought her illness with dignity to the end. My life through poetry, will make you laugh, cry, and reminisce of days gone by.

I had a happy childhood, surrounded with fun and laughter, with the odd scrape here and there, the fun we had riding on steam trains, they were days of innocents.

My teens was a whole new world opening before me, but not until I was 17, before that I would play tag, skipping, we were still children then.

Then in my twenties I had a son, he was a joy never any problem, except for spiders.....

As time went on I never, never, thought I would have so much joy, pain, and a deep emptiness that is with me always.

Along came Tetley my 9 month old shizu tuz, what antics he gets up to and how he makes me laugh, he is quite famous in and around where we live, from barking barking, to being so cute, at the park he knows a lot of people who call to him, and he struts his stuff, you will laugh a lot about him I promise.....

So come with me and see with my poems, a lot of laughter, joy, pain..... and Tetley
