Paris Immortal: Atonement S. Roit

It's business as usual for Trey du Bois. Of course, the 'business' might seem straight forward enough - a trip to New York must be made for negotiations on behalf of Trey's clients, Michel and Gabriel. But 'usual' is a relative term. In this case, it means traveling with a vampire bodyguard and trying to make sense of the voices in his head.

Back in Europe, Michel and Gabriel travel from place to place, meeting with contacts, trying to understand exactly who is double-crossing them and whom they can count on. Vicont's power over Michel may prove to be far stronger than previously realized, and it's a struggle to stay focused as Trey confronts his worst nightmare in Brooklyn.
