Emora, a breathtakingly beautiful world rich in mystery and magic, is home to two opposing races. The Venari, a chillingly beautiful race with superior strength and speed, pride themselves on their perfection and advanced technology. That their rivals, the Novad, have a shapeshifting ability that they do not, does not sit well with them. As Novad disappear, the Venari's true self comes to light. Kira is Venari-born, cast out for her physical imperfections and taken in by a Novad family. With the attempted abduction of her Novad brother, Kira knows she cannot sit idly by. Determined to protect her family, she is willing to swallow her pride and embrace her Venari heritage. In order to win their trust and infiltrate their powerful hierarchy, she must do that which she has learned to detest... lie and deceive. Can she stay true to her Novad family or will the Venari lure her back? The lines she once saw so clearly become blurred. Can she find a way to bring together races so opposite in nature, or will fear and betrayal inflame the fires of war.
