A Way Out Mr Marlon D Waff

Shelly White aka Poosy was a young, beautiful, innocent girl who ran to the young boys in the streets for the affection she failed to receive from her alcoholic mother at home. This led to her being impregnated twice with her son's, Mark and Rashun, by a abuser, drug dealer named Martin Brice who cared more about his money than his family. In her attempt to escape the madness of her relationship with Martin she began to engage heavily in drugs which eventually led to her negligence of her motherly duties and leaving her children to fend for themselves in the hands of a child abuser... Mark, being the younger of the two, constantly, prayed and cried to a God, who never seemed to be listening, to help him escape the insanity of a life that threaten to overcome him. Until one day it all changed... With the determination to change the circumstances of their lives, Mark stopped crying and praying, takes matters into his own hands, and goes through a maze of robbery, drug dealing, murder, and incarceration all in an desperate attempt to find "A Way Out"
