~Just a single ticket. No note. No return address. Only the promise of seeing her ex-best friend doing what he loves.~

Best friends since before they could remember, Olivia Stallings and Ryker Jennings were practically inseparable. Right up until Ryker confesses his love for her during sophomore year in the booth of the local Pizza Hut. Caught off guard by the seemingly out of the blue confession, Olivia freezes.

~But a friendship like theirs could certainly survive a blow like that.~

When Ryker leaves after graduation to pursue his dream of becoming a musician, Olivia is crushed. Even worse, is that she realizes her love for him too late. But when he shows up unexpectedly two years later, she's all set to confess her feelings so that they can begin their happily ever after. Except Ryker's got a bit of news of his own. News that shatters the future she's planned with the one person who means the most to her.

~Apparently, neither love nor friendship can survive the news that Ryker's going to be a father or that he intends to marry the mom-to-be.~

Six years later, in a crumbling relationship, Olivia receives a solitary ticket to Ryker's show. Torn between want to and need to, love and responsibility, Olivia has a decision to make - a decision that will surely change the course of her future.

~Will Ryker's bombshell bring them back together? Or will the events after serve to draw the line that finally divides them for good?~
