It's been seventeen years since Whitney and Kal had their first and only daughter. She's growing up to be exactly like her father the only problem is she will soon become the first Alpha female. As if her life wasn't complicated enough with all the boys following her around, a strange group of people enter her town and ask for protection. Will Lilly find her mate, but more importantly will the family find the protection their needing from the three packs? Or will the thing that's hunting them finally get what they want.
