You Are Worthy Too: Marriage Motherhood and My Moral Meltdown (My Life Story) (Volume 2)

Wendy L Glidden

This is the second volume in my life series. It takes you from age 17 to 23. To give you a general idea of what stories I share in this book, I will confide I originally referred to them as my dark ages. I am not proud of many things I did of my own accord but I did them. Your story is your story. God called me forth to tell it like it happened. It is in doing so that His glory shines through. Unlike in my first book where some of the titles cause you to think that something happened when indeed it is not how the events truly panned out, this book's chapters give a good description of what you will find within the chapter itself. With the exception of chapter 7 entitled 'I'm Learning to be the light'. This book is full of chapters that were challenging for me to share. I cover many of the items I talked about in my first book listed under the things I once thought I would never do! I hope you find the silver linings in all I share.
