As Annabelle starts to settle in and adjust to life on a new planet, after being taken from her home on Earth, she falls more in love with her strong, handsome alpha alien mate. Still, she must search to find her proper place in this new society. Along the way, she finds out more about the personal life of her new husband before discovering her own personal surprise.

This is the second volume in a science fiction romance that follows the story of young Annabelle and her first adventures into love and marriage with attractive, stoic, young Azenth, who likes to be in control.
