Today's Tomorrow Joe Robert Surber

Most people are not aware that much of the content of their lives is the result of their ""habit cycles"" of thinking, feeling, and acting. Also, many people want to improve their lives and relationships with others and/or want to make a change within themselves. Too many times the thought for improvement is in the tomorrow mode, neglecting today's needed action. Today's Tomorrow provides the awareness, the information, and the model for change. Today's Tomorrow utilizes stories, illustrations, and examples to explain many mental and emotional obstacles that ambush individuals on the path to improvement.
