SEAL Team Bravo: Black Ops - Assault on Al Shabaab Eric Meyer

Following the hijacking of a cruise liner in the Mediterranean, SEAL Team Bravo are sent in to rescue the hostages. A perilous night jump onto the deck of a moving ship carries its own dangers. Yet the operation throws up something else, something unexpected. A whole new threat to the security of the Western World. And a name the world has grown to fear since the shopping mall massacre in Kenya. Al Shabaab.

The men of Team Bravo, the elite Navy SEALs unit, are no strangers to behind-the-lines missions. But this time, the enemy has stamped their own, inimitable brand on a whole new level of savagery and violence. And the target has a name that will live forever in American military infamy. Mogadishu.

The action is even more bloody and explosive, and Chief Kyle Nolan has to out-think and outfight an enemy that astonishes the civilized world with its thirst for blood. An enemy that is clever, well armed and well resourced. An enemy that seems to anticipate their every move. Under attack from all sides in the benighted country of Somali, they hit back hard, using their unique brand of toughness and fighting skills.

This is a superb thriller, a story that vividly portrays the explosive action of Navy SEAL operations, the men, the weapons and the equipment. A story full of explosive twists and turns. SEAL Team Bravo: Black Ops 5 is a worthy, action packed sequel to the previous four best selling SEAL Team – Black Ops novels.
