One More Miracle: The Memoirs of Morris Sorid Morris Sorid

A young Jewish Pole and his wife plot their escape from the ghetto of Pruzhany, Poland to join a group of underground Partisan fighters as the Nazis cleanse their town of Jews. A story of survival through the perils of World War II and the Holocaust, and a testament to Jewish resistance captured in the Oscar-nominated film, "Defiance," starring Daniel Craig.

"A welcome addition to the wartime literature about Jewish resistance under the German occupation... (A)n honest and moving account about the most horrendous circumstances, showing how despite impossible obstacles, some Jews had coped courageously and selflessly, promoting each others' welfare and survival."

-- Professor Nechama Tec, University of Connecticut, author of "Defiance: The Bielski Partisans", the book on which the motion picture "Defiance" was based.
