Caught Between Two Thugs Chamise

Essence Martin had it all. Her man was King Smith, one of the biggest Kingpins in downtown Atlanta who was on the verge of taking over the whole city. The only problem with that was Trace Coleman, who was just as big as kingpin as King Smith. Essence had seen first hand the damage Trace Coleman could do, and just like King, Essence wanted to do everything in her power to eliminate him before he turned the city upside down.

As King's woman, Essence prided herself on the loyalty she shows to her man. Having his back in every situation she was truly his ride or die. That same attitude lands her in a dangerous position with Trace Coleman at the center of it.

Trace figures out that the key to ending King's reign is through his woman. But what Trace wasn't prepared for was the raw attraction he felt towards her. He just couldn't understand her loyalty to King Smith.

Even scared for her life, Essence can't think past the dangerously sexy man threatening her and King's life.

An impossible flame ignites that contradicts her loyalty. But Essence begins to learn the hard way about just who exactly King Smith really was.

As all three of their lives collide in controversy, and drama, Essence will truly understand the danger of being caught between two thugs.
