Smaller Adult Motorcycles: Long Awaited New Market Segment Herb Uhl

The motorcycle industry has overlooked a major new market segment in search of smaller adult motorcycles. Herb Uhl, credited to be the inventor of the ATV by designing the Honda Trail 50, thus opening up the industry-wide ATV segment of motorcycles. He now proposes a new model of motorcycles targeted at riders of a shorter stature seeking a quality ride. Author and inventor Herb Uhl presents an overwhelming case for an untapped market segment of small motorcycles designed and engineered motorcycle ergonomics culminating in a high-end small motorcycle for women and men of short stature. The idea for upscale motorcycles for short riders with fat wallets in search of small street bikes to invest their expendable income on is ripe for the picking.
