A note from Clemency Jopling: These Confessions were written by an old friend and former colleague of mine, Mr Bernard Thompson. To be more precise, the Confessions are largely a record of his lifelong sexual interests. When Bernard died, he left the manuscript of his memoirs to me, and asked me to edit it and arrange for it to be published. This I have now done. The Confessions come in three parts, of which this is the first. Bernard begins his story in 1950, when he was twenty-three years old. And from the very first sentence we realise that, as he matured, his sexual interests were focused on what is now called BDSM, though in those days it was more commonly referred to as spanking, or corporal punishment. It was at the age of twenty-three that Bernard first saw a young lady being punished with a strap and a cane, and after that there was no doubt what he enjoyed doing most in the sexual sphere. Bernard's story is intended for adult readers only and should not be read by anyone who is offended by accounts of spanking and caning. Extract from an Amazon review: 'I don't usually care for corporal punishment stories, but this one was a delight. I laughed out loud at some of the antics these folks got up to. 'The sex is not particularly hot, but it is very funny, which can be even better. The author has a droll, sometimes dry sense of humor, and I love it.' Genre:Fiction>Erotica>twentieth century>heterosexual>bdsM>M/F>consensual M/F sex>humour Please be aware before you buy Part 1 of the Confessions that there is an omnibus edition containing all three parts in one volume, at a markedly reduced price.
