Dios no está muerto 2 (Spanish Edition) Travis Thrasher

Dios no está muerto 2 narra la historia detrás de la famosa película, yendo aún más a fondo a las historias de los personajes principales y mostrando una imagen triunfante de la victoria que conlleva enfrentar las adversidades de la vida con una fe verdadera.

Arkansas pareciera un lugar poco probable en donde presenciar una batalla sobre la libertad religiosa, sin embargo el conflicto que comenzó en una pequeña universidad se ha extendido a las instalaciones de una preparatoria, donde una joven maestra cristiana llamada Grace Wesley es el centro de atención por hablar abiertamente de Cristo en su salón de clases. Tom, un joven abogado que trabaja con el sindicato de maestros, ha sido asignado a representar a Grace para abogar por sus derechos de libertad de expresión religiosa. Muy pronto, la abogacía de Tom lo llevará a conocer a Amy Ryan, una reportera y anteriormente escéptica, quien ha sido encontrada por la fe después de combatir con cáncer y por el haber presenciado personalmente la batalla que se suscitó en la universidad de Hope Springs el año anterior. Tom descubre toda la verdad acerca del caso y al mismo tiempo empieza a ver lo que significa tener una fe genuina.

Tom, un héroe sinigual, parece estar destinado al fracaso cuando decide tomar el caso de un cliente sabiendo que seguramente no ganará. Y es así como un abogado no creyente, una reportera con innumerables dificultades y una maestra acosada comienzan a compartir sus experiencias del pasado y sus luchas del presente, convirtiéndose sorprendentemente en aliados en este viaje hacia la fe.

Dios no está muerto 2 [God's Not Dead 2] tells the story behind the blockbuster film, going deeper into the characters' backstories and showing a triumphant picture of the victory that comes from true belief in the face of adversity.

Arkansas seems an unlikely setting for a battle over religious freedom, but the conflict that started at a small local college has spread to a high school campus, where a young Christian teacher named Grace Wesley is on the hot seat with the school district for talking about Jesus in her classroom. Tom, a young lawyer on retainer by the teacher's union, is tapped to represent Grace in her fight for her First Amendment rights. Soon Tom's advocacy leads him to Amy Ryan, a reporter and former skeptic who found faith after battling cancer and watching the classroom battle unfold at Hope Springs College a year ago. Tom discovers the truth about the case while also learning more about what genuine faith looks like.

Tom, the unlikely hero, seems destined for failure as he takes on a case he surely can't win. But as the disbelieving lawyer, the struggling journalist, and the persecuted teacher share experiences from their past and struggles of the present, they become reluctant allies in their journeys toward faith.
