Trey is getting used to his life. Vampires? Not a problem. Voices of the dead? Par for the course. It's his own tumultuous past and the painful memories it contains that cause the most grief. When Trey's friend Scott returns to his life, he can start trying to overcome even those problems. Meanwhile, Trey's immortal boss, the stunning Michel, has assumed his rightful position in Paris and is dealing with his own issues. The captivating Elise requires his aid, but her presence threatens to force a rift between his partner Gabriel and him, just as it had in their past. Trey will learn the full extent of the mysterious powers that come with being a bridge between the living and the dead. But not all power is good, and even the best intentions can have disastrous consequences.
