Walk with Faith Dana Bradshaw

This forty day, heartfelt devotional, symbolizes the time between Jesus' death and his ascent. It allows the reader to spiritually interact by relating ones' own testimony. By the end, the reader is completely taken in, transformed and ascends to a higher level of self. The reader will be engaged and get a daily dose of positive, enlightening inspiration; through a biblical scripture, the writers' thought and, finish with a powerful prayer. These dynamic messages promise to encourage the reader to be steadfast in prayer and lead with the word of the Bible. All of the topics are relevant to the times and, these prayers can be applied when facing any obstacle in the readers' life. In a remarkable way, it encourages the reader to "Walk with Faith." "I am wowed by your devotionals. It's so perfect for people in today's era because it is direct, to the point and incredibly uplifting." Kay Packard - Author, "Your Life is in Your Hands" As a young girl, Dana Bradshaw, memorized definitions in the dictionary and studied the thesaurus. She fell in love with words and began writing. While writing wasn't always at the forefront, it was always her passion and remained close to her heart. For more than thirty years, she collected her thoughts in the form of devotionals, poetry and stories. Now, she lives her purpose by sharing her inspirational works to help encourage people all over the world to elevate to a higher level of self through spirituality regardless of their past circumstance."
