Barriers Ruth Arieli

A complex tale of triumph over challenges, with true-to-life characters and very real problems. Naomi's world is shattered when one of her twins is born deaf, but this difficulty is just the beginning, yet another of her children is diagnosed with a severe condition. As the lens widens, Naomi's father emerges with his own challenges, reliving his own painful past as he learns to come to terms with the present. This richly told story will resonate with the reader on many levels.
