Disappointments, tragedies, and troubled pasts can leave a person in a defeated state—a prolonged state of hopelessness and confusion—and it can seem as if there is no way out of the misery. Although never a simple task, it is certainly possible to break free from struggles and overcome the pain from heartbreak. Indeed, there are few things in life that are more glorious than a comeback. The goal of this book is to return readers to a firm footing by first describing several types of defeated mindsets and then providing solutions to overcome those conditions. Each chapter draws upon biblical examples to offer valuable and practical insight on how to battle adversity. If you or someone you know is in the midst of a trial, this book will provide you with some much needed tools to achieve victory after defeat.
