Dr. David Garrison's long-awaited global survey of Muslim movements to Christ reveals that we are in the midst of the greatest turning of Muslims to Christ in history. David Garrison, PhD University of Chicago, traveled a quarter-million miles throughout the Muslim world investigating movements, each one with at least a thousand baptisms that have occurred over a two-decade period, some containing tens of thousands of Muslims who are now followers of Jesus Christ. Garrison's core question: "What did God use to bring you to faith in Jesus Christ? Tell me your story."

The result is the most extensive survey of Muslim movements to Christ ever achieved. Garrison divides the Muslim world into nine geo-cultural zones, or "Rooms" in the House of Islam. He discovered and surveyed movements in each of these Rooms, from West Africa to Indonesia and everywhere in between.

This book features 46 color photos, 11 color maps with data tables of Muslim people groups, a thorough index, glossary of terms, bibliography, notes, and discussion questions at the end of each chapter.

Dr. Sasan Tavassoli of Pars Theological Centre called Garrison's book, "The most important and exciting book on the world of Islam that I have ever read!"

Dr. Dudley Woodberry, Dean Emeritus of the Fuller Seminary School of Intercultural Studies said, "This book is the most comprehensive analysis of Muslim movements to Christ that has ever been done."

Garrison's book is a thoroughly researched, unprecedented look behind the scenes into how God is at work in the Muslim world. Readers will find it inspirational, informative, and challenging.
