This book is for crafters who want to discover new and exciting metal craft techniques to create stylish accessories for the home and garden or to give as gifts. Metal crafts has been a fashionable area for quite some time, but this is the first book that features new metal products combined with other popular craft materials, such as paper, beads, rubber stamps and glass paint. The 28 step-by-step projects include things such as a diary cover, greeting cards, hanging lanterns, garden signs and picture frames. Crafters who like to work with wire and other metals, crafters into jewellery, rubber stamping and garden crafts, or crafts in general will find much appeal in this book.
