She can't stop. She can't walk away. She can't hold back any longer.

When Grace's house unexpectedly burns down, the insurance company puts them up in a crummy hotel until more suitable accommodation can be found.

Far too late to negotiate an alternative, it means sharing a box room with her stepbrother James, in which they've neglected to provide separate beds.

James begins the night on the floor, but Grace immediately feels sorry for him. Her bed is huge and it seems like a shame to waste it. Grace knows that she's playing with fire, but she just can't help herself. She invites him up to join her.

She knows it's taboo, and she knows it's forbidden, but James is just too damn tempting to resist. When his leg touches hers and he reaches out for her, she knows she should just push him away. Everything inside her tells her it's wrong, but she doesn't want to listen. She can't stop. She can't walk away. She can't hold back any longer.

James is her stepbrother and this is her burning desire. Finally she's going to let him get what he wants.
