My name is Natalie Rushing, but the cocky bastard insists on calling me the Amateur, or Ms. Blogger on days when he's feeling generous.

Oliver Bacall, a famous photographer in New York, and a Brit. The one with that smug grin that I hate, permanently painted on his distractingly beautiful face.

Those piercing eyes, the color of ice. I saw them from across the room. I didn't know how cold they'd be until he got closer.

If I'd known we'd end up stuck in a room together during New York Fashion Week, I would've packed more than just a few scanty silk camisoles to sleep in.

Call me Amateur one more time, and I promise to make you regret it.

I hope you know... this means war.

A delicious alpha male romantic comedy about a young woman's coming-of-age story in Manhattan, New York. She must face her harsh, naysaying critics, even the ones with the most devilishly good-looking faces. Perfect for fans of J.C. Reed, Vi Keeland, and Penelope Ward. This is a stand-alone happily-ever-after story - no cliffhangers!

Contains mature themes and language, and is intended for 18+ readers only.
