Lizzie Allore is saying au revoir to France and bonjour to America. On her first day of school she is nervous and expecting the worse. Wearing her metal orthodontic headgear, Lizzie expects her American classmates to tease her, just like they did at her old school. And now she will have to speak English, not her native language, French, to be understood! But when Lizzie meets Duncan and Marina in her new school she is taken by surprise. Lizzie's world of high school begins to open to new possibilities, confusing relationships and realizations about what matters in life. With every roadblock, Lizzie meets her challenges and discovers strengths in herself that she never knew she had. Accompanied by original songs written and sung by the author and friends, Found is a coming of age story full of the thoughts, situations and anxieties that every teenage girl will recognize. For an enhanced experience with this book, readers are invited to enter Lizzie's world by listening to the songs from Found, at www.soundcloud.com/marleyrin
