Everyone will enjoy this 4 book collection by the beloved Jane Thayer with whimsical illustrations by Seymour Fleishman. Books Include: Gus And The Baby Ghost where Gus, a friendly ghost, lived in an old house in the country. The owner and their twins only live there in the summer so as autumn arrives, poor Gus has nothing to do. One day, during a walk, Gus meets Mouse, who is cold and hungry and thus begins an unlikely but heartwarming friendship. In Gus Goes To School, Gus writes his autobiography but it is returned by the publisher due to spelling errors so Gus decides to go to school and learn to spell. In Gus Loved His Happy Home, Gus neglects his housecleaning chores while Mr. Frizzle is on vacation, and fears that this dereliction of duty will cause him and his animal friends to lose their home with Frizzle. Part-Time dog is a lovely tale of a little stray dog named Brownie who wanders onto Maple Street. Brownie walks the children to school, goes to the bank with Mrs. Butterworth, and even helps Mrs. Tweedy rake her yard. But when night comes, everyone goes home except for Brownie because he doesn't have a home to go to, until ... Children have delighted in these stories for more than fifty years. Seymour Fleishman's sweet, nostalgic illustrations bring the characters to life.
