MovieMaker Magazine's Guide to Making Horror Movies

MovieMaker Magazine, the best-selling independent movie magazine in the world, releases its first-ever annual Guide to Making Horror Movies. It's everything an independent moviemaker needs for horror success, with: interviews with fright-meisters Eli Roth and the makers of Goodnight Mommy, The Babadook and Splice; an in-depth discussion of RADiUS's smash success, It Follows, and a study of the contemporary horror distribution landscape; a comprehensive guide to the horror festivals you need to submit to across North America and the rest of the world; plus: a poll on the scariest scenes of all time, Nicolas Winding Refn's 10 favorite horror classics, and a handy horror sub-genre flowchart to help you determine what your next film should be about. First published as a special section in MovieMaker's Fall 2015 issue, this eBook edition has been expanded to include extra stories unavailable in print or online: directing lessons from Alfred Hitchcock, a guide to navigating the horror fan universe, and more. It's essential reading for all horror movie creators and fans, so don't miss it!
