Michelle Y. Talbert and Ricardo Kingsbury met online a week before Valentine's Day. They celebrated Valentine's Day together, had a whirlwind love affair, and by Easter were asking, "what just happened?" Well, they dusted themselves off, realized that collectively they have almost 20 years of online dating experience and that they must be doing something wrong...maybe. At 41, they are both twice married, yet remain single, more importantly, hopeful, that they'll find and keep true love. In this book they share their story and the stories of others who have used online dating for one purpose, or another. It's a tongue-in-cheek helpful guide. Find out the five top things you should do for safety on a first date; the three things you should NEVER do in your profile picture; and more!
